Reference:

The Board submits herewith an arrear bill for Rs.13/- being the arrears of increment due to Prohibition Guard, Mowla Saheb of Bellary district, and reports as under:

The increments raising the pay of the Prohibition Guard from Rs.31/- to Rs.31/8/- and from Rs.31/8/- to Rs.32/- which fell due on 1-4-50 and 1-4-51 respectively were sanctioned by the District Prohibition Officer, Bellary in October 1951. There was delay in the District Prohibition Officer's Office in sanctioning the increment and in preparing the arrear bill. The District Prohibition Officer is taking suitable action against the clerks responsible for the delay.

The Deputy Commissioner has suggested that no cut need be imposed on the claim as the delay was not due to the Prohibition Guard's negligence or carelessness. The Board agrees with the Deputy Commissioner and requests that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the payment of the claim in full and to authorise the Accountant General, Madras to investigate into it.
